

Dr. Shoab F. Padaria Is A Consultant Interventional Cardiologist Practicing In Mumbai and Associated With The Jaslok and Saifee Hospitals.

He did his M.D. in Medicine and D.M. in Cardiology from the K.E.M. Hospital in Bombay, Securing gold medals both times. He then went abroad and was trained in angiography and angioplasty at the guys hospital in London. He acquired further specialized training in the United States.

Dr. Padaria perform a large number of Coronary Angioplasties every year. His special area of interest is Peripheral Vascular Diseases, and he has done significant pioneer work in Peripheral Angioplasty and Laser Treatment of Varicose Veins.

Dr. Padaria is fellow of the American College Of Angiology, The Society for Cardiac Interventions, and The British Cardiac Society. He is also a Life Member of the Cardiological Society of India, and the Association Of Physicians Of India. He is the founder member of the Venous Association of India. He is also Past President of Venous Association of India. He is the Vice President of Asian Venous Forum. He is Council Member of International Union of Phlebology. He has set up the first Hyperbaric Medicine Department in Private Hospital in Mumbai in November' 2008.